NNS14ITS Sources Sought
Questions and Answers as of June 3, 2014

Question-1

Is the requested narrative to be included in the provided spreadsheet or may we provide in a Word document?

Answer-1

Requested narrative is to be included on the spreadsheet and additional data can be provided in a Word, Excel or PDF document.

Question-2

The Sources Sought indicates that Section C will be attached. I assume you meant the "PWS" which is attached. Is that right?

Answer-2

Yes

Question -3

Also, the Sources Sought indicates "potential changes noted for a more detailed review of the work". I did not see any potential changes indicated in the PWS. Are there any?

Answer-3

The potential changes are noted in the excel spreadsheet.

Question-4

Do you have format preferences for the submission? Should we submit in PDF or in their original formats of excel and potentially Word?

Answer-4

No preference for format. You may submit the responses in PDF, excel or word format.

Question-5

Is the Statement of Work provided the latest version?

Answer-5

Yes

NNS14ITS Sources Sought
Questions and Answers as of June 3, 2014

Question-6

Is the Statement of Interest spreadsheet included in the five page limit for offerors' response?

Answer-6

No

Question-7

Is it permissible to provide the narrative portion of our response in a separate MS Word/PDF document?

Answer-7

Yes

Question-8

Are you able to disclose the current incumbent?

Answer-8

Yes, the current incumbent is ASRC Research & Technology Solution

Question-9

POP dates?

Answer -9

May 01, 2010-April 30, 2015