Amendment 02
Solicitation NNJ12405849R

Please note questions may have been paraphrased.

2. Comment: We provide international weather services and flight planning services. We make arrangements for ground handling and fuel services and we do not provide these services directly.

Question: Is the contractor required to provide fuel as described in the Statement of Work section 1.3.b or to make fuel arrangements? Also, is the contractor required to provide ground handling, ground transportation, and catering as described in the Statement of Work section 1.3.e or to make arrangements?

Answer: The contractor is required to provide the services in Statement of Work sections 1.3.b and 1.3.e. The contractor can either provide the services directly or through a third party. If the contractor elects to provide the services through a third party, the Government shall not pay the third party directly. The Government shall pay the contractor.
