SF-30 Continued

Question 1: Will Davis Bacon wage rates apply to this contract? No. Please refer to the service wage rates attached to the RFQ for the rates that apply.

Question 2: In the statement of work 6.1 requires a competent person on site at all times during work activities. Can this be a properly trained worker or is there a requirement for a full time safety manager if so what is the training requirements for said position. A properly trained worker will be adequate.

Question 3: In the statement of work 5.0.b it states that the COTR will request quotes for specific tasks. Will task orders be awarded as a firm fixed price or on an hourly plus material basis? Firm-Fixed Price.

Question 4: In the solicitation under technical capability there is a five page limit. Can this be changed to five pages excluding key personnel's resumes? Yes, resumes can be separate and will not count toward the five-page limit.

Question 5: Is there a requirement for full time onsite project management? Also, how would this position be funded? No full-time onsite project management required.

Question 6: On the Past Performance Questionnaire at the end of the form it states to e-mail them to you but the solicitation requires them to be in our bid package which is preferred. The PPQ's shall be submitted by the person filling them out. The offeror is required to provide the names of the person/company they sent PPQ's to. The PPQ's must be sent from the person/company filling them out.

Question 7: Is this a follow on contract? If so will current employees be made available for interviews? This is not a follow-on contract.

Question 8: Are on site offices required? If so will the government supply office space or should we assume to provide trailer offices? On-site offices are not required.

Question 9: If this is a follow on contract is any government owned equipment or tools available for use under this contract? As the RFQ states, "NASA shall maintain the option to furnish any or all components, types of material or hardware for any type of service requested by NASA to this contractor on an individual task basis." This will be spelled out in each individual task order. Contractor provides their own tools.

Question 10: Are you able to advise if this is a new requirement or is there an incumbent contractor performing the work? If there is an incumbent, could you please provide the contractor's name, contract number, award date, expiration date, and value? This is a new requirement.

Question 11: There is mention of an SF-1449 but I cannot locate this in the posted documents. The SF-1449 will be sent to the awardee at the time of award for signature.

Question 12: Could you please confirm the method in which the quotes should be submitted for SOL: NNC12ZCH005R Electrical Trade Services. Faxes are noted as unacceptable. Will emails be accepted with a hard copied mail? Yes.

Question 13: I am trying to understand the expected format of a proposal as I did not see a form to complete. Do you expect a proposal that is a list of technicians required with their hourly rates and a rate for markup on labor and materials? Yes. With some terms and conditions included for review/negotiation? Yes, along with any other tools, vehicles, or anything you feel may be required to complete task orders.
