NASA requires Gulfstream aircraft windshields. Gulfstream is the manufacturer of the Gulfstream3 aircraft. They can provide traceability, compliance to the latest revisions, and modifications to the components as required by DCP-S-019. Market research indicates other companies' similar products, or products lack the particular feature, do not meet, or cannot be modified to meet, the agency's needs.

As the Contracting Officer I have determined that purchasing Gulfstream brand name item is justifiable under FAR 13.106-1(b).
